CONVEYANCING SCAM! BE AWARE AND VIGILANT WHEN MAKING PAYMENTS

We have been advised of a new scam involving a slightly different modus operandi from the one doing the rounds for the past two years. In one such matter, after a property sale had been cancelled, the conveyancer needed to refund the deposit to the purchaser.

READ MORE

LATEST PROPERTY CASE LAW DEVELOPMENTS...

THE MUNICIPALITY HAS TO PAY! This judgment deals with a property seller's application to compel a municipality to amend its records concerning...

READ MORE

OWNING VS RENTING: YOU DECIDE!

With SA's economy looking uncertain and interest rates starting to creep up, many young people who have been getting ready to buy their own homes are starting to wonder if they should...

READ MORE

OLDER BUILDINGS AND THE HIDDEN DANGERS...

What happens in cases of older sectional title developments, where units are found to have severe damp and the unit's structure could be...

READ MORE